BRIEF OVERVIEW

MCLEODGANJ & TRIUND TREK

The McLeodganj and Triund Trek is one of the most loved short treks in Himachal Pradesh, attracting travelers who wish to experience the charm of the Himalayas without going too far from civilization. The journey begins from McLeodganj, a peaceful hill town known for its Tibetan monasteries, local markets, and cozy cafes. As you start your trek from Bhagsu or Dharamkot, the trail gradually ascends through dense forests of oak and deodar, offering beautiful views of the Kangra Valley below.

The trek is around 9 kilometers one way and can be completed in 4 to 5 hours, making it perfect for beginners and weekend travelers.

At the top, Triund Hill rewards you with panoramic views of the snow-clad Dhauladhar range and a peaceful environment ideal for camping. Watching the sunset and sunrise from Triund is an unforgettable experience for every trekker.

Whether you're looking for a short adventure, a break from city life, or simply a quiet spot in the mountains, the McLeodganj to Triund Trek is a great choice. It combines scenic beauty, easy accessibility, and a touch of adventure — making it one of the best weekend treks from Delhi or Chandigarh.
